Your day, captured in timeless wedding photos

PAUL WINZAR PHOTOGRAPHY

A little about me, I'm a husband, dad to two amazing kids, an artist, and of course, a photographer. I've been capturing weddings for over 15 years now, and I still get excited about every single one. Along the way I've picked up a few awards, but what really matters to me is creating something special for each couple I work with.

My style is relaxed and natural, with just a little gentle posing here and there to help bring out those extra-special shots. Most of all, I want your photos to feel like you, real, joyful, and full of genuine moments.

Your wedding story is important to be told, with the many months of planning and preparation that goes into a wedding. You want the fine details of the fun, laughter, joy and heartfelt moments in life to be captured on your day.

Pre-Wedding Session

These are a great way to feel more comfortable in front of the camera before the big day.

The photos from the shoot are also great to make into a guest signing book for the reception.

Additionally all images from the shoot are included in high resolution.

Kind Words

"Paul... I have no words!!! I have only got to the signing and had to come back and say thank you. Your work is absolutely beautiful and everything I had ever dreamt of for my own wedding photographs. Thank you doesn't seem enough, you know what photographs mean to me"

"Just WOW for 2 people that hate photos, you have changed the way we think Thank you"

"OH MY GOSH the photos!
They are all absolutely amazing!
They are even better than what we could have imagined!!
Thank you
soooo much for capturing our special day
Everybody we've shown them to so far has been commenting on how stunning the photos are!"
